SULLY FOR SALE

THIS estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty-two miles from Alexandria and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaister of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation: and those, now untilled, are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion spacious and well constructed; the out houses are all conveniently situated those for farming purposes are expensive, and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate to an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds, and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

Francis Lightfoot Lee.

For immediate Sale,

Two hundred SHEEP, one fourth full bred, the rest mixed Merinos, all in perfect health and fine order.

Richmond Nov. 25.

Virginia Legislature.

On Saturday, Mr. Wooding presented the report of the Committee of Privileges and elections, on the contested election of Wm. B. Chamberlayne, the returned Member from the county of Henrico—After entering into a particular exposition of the votes on both sides which were disputed—the Report winds up with stating that

The votes of W. B. Chamberlayne were at the close of the polls 182
Deduct for expunged votes 28

Good votes 154

That the votes of G. Savage at the close of the polls were 180
Deduct expunged votes 23

Good votes 157

Thus leaving a majority of 3 in favor of Savage—that G. Savage was therefore duly elected for the county of Henrico for this present general Assembly—and, therefore, Resolved that the petition of George Savage is reasonable.

The house began the investigation of this report—but on motion, it was laid on the table, and 250 copies of it were ordered to be printed for the use of the members of the General Assembly.

Mr. Thompson, from the Select Committee to whom that subject was committed reported a bill repealing in part the act of the last Assembly relative to an accurate chart for each county and a general map of the territory of this Commonwealth—The act to be so far repealed as it respects the providing of a chart—On motion committed to the Committee of the whole House on the State of the Commonwealth.

After some other matters which would afford no interest to the reader—the House adjourned.

EDUCATION.

The following petition from the county of Wood was read in the House of Delegates on Friday last—and referred to the committee of schools colleges, &c—It contains a great deal of good sense, though wrapt up in a style of naivete which makes it amusing.—We present it as a literary morceau to our readers;

To the Honorable the Members & Speaker of the General Assembly.

The Petition to the subscribers, citizens of Wood county

HUMBLY SHEWETH,

That although placed at the verge of the Ancient Dominion, and hitherto regarded as orphans they have never lost sight of the fundamental principles of republicanism. That it is owing to adventitious circumstances, alone, that distinction in society has hitherto been maintained; but that all men are originally equal. In order, however, to render lasting these ideas, it is of importance that those who must succeed us, in our local functions, should be enabled not to imitate our virtues only, but the energies of those patriots who atchieved our Revolution.

That although we have, with pleasure, hailed the different acts of the Legislature, on the objects of Education, as opening a vista to our offspring, to which their fathers were in a great measure strangers; and although we, as children of the Revolution, born in these stormy times, were forced to accept of the improvement of our faculties under the sound of the war whoop; yet we have fondly looked forward to the time when the light of science should dawn upon the rising generation. We have, however found our fond anticipation on this subject nipt in the bud—the Act of 1796 being so guarded with checks and balances, that it can never, in human probability, be carried into effect: and the Act of 18—being in a great measure superceded by the different appropriations made during the last war.

With submission we ask, we wish to be heard: Is nothing worthy of Columbia's sons but the din of war? Are garments rolled in blood, the only distinction we should be ambitious to attain?

We, in connection with others, in the present neglected state of education, as fathers, feel with double force the sentiment conveyed in those beautiful lines of the Poet, that

Full many a gem of purest ray serene,
The dark unfathom'd caves of ocean bear;
Full many a flower is born to blush unseen,
And waste its sweetness in the desert air.

Although the means of education be not entirely out of the reach of some of us; yet with what feelings must we contemplate the situation of those around us? But admit that all may, with due prudence, have their offspring educated in the rudiments of their mother tongue—are we to be the reproach of our Eastern brethren? Are the brilliant talents of the native to remain unimproved, and be confined to the culture of the earth? While the smatterings of Connecticut and Massachusetts, who avowedly leave the Land of Steady Habits on account of inferior acquirements, are to fill our bar, our bench, and our pulpits; to say nothing of the Professor's chair, which under the present system, must fall a prey to needy adventurers?

Or are we to send our sons (and this alone the wealthy can do) to foreign seminaries, to imbibe the anti republican ideas which have hitherto been the course of our land?

On this subject our hearts are full! We pray you by the respect you owe to your rising offspring—by the sacred memory of your fathers—by the Amor Patria that glows in the breast of every son of Virginia—by the rising glory of our natal soil, so far to disseminate the blessings of a good education as to enable each and every one, according to his situation to cultivate the minds of their rising progeny; and so to distribute the means among the different counties, that a grammer school, at least, may be established in each. For ourselves, we pray, that Isaac Morris, Joseph H. Samuels, James H. Neal, Thomas Neale, Hugh Phelps, Jacob Beeson, and James G. Laidley may be incorporated under the name of the Jefferson Academy—and that all the fines, forfeitures and escheats in this county be vested in the board aforesaid, with the reservation of the fees of surveyors hitherto appropriated to the Randolph Academy.

And your petitioners, as in duty bound will pray.

Charleston Nov. 19.

By the brig Cornelia, we yesterday received copious files of Paris papers to the 6th October, and Bordeaux papers and prices current to the 10th. Business is represented to be excessively dull in the ports of France. Some translations are given in this day's Courier, and further extracts will be made for our next.

London dates in our Paris papers are to the 4th October. 3 per cent. consols closed at 61 7-8 on the 3. Much business was done at the exchange same day, and the funds rose 1-2 per cent.

The grand Duke Constantine was expected in London from the Continent on the 3d or 4th October.

Lord and Lady Castlereagh had set out for Ireland.

From a Grenada paper received at the Herald Office.

From the Trinidad Courant, Oct. 12.

The officers of his Majesty's ships, and officers of his Majesty's customs, stimulated by a sense of duty though not by inclination, but with the laudable view of preventing foreigners taking the bread from British ships, have for some time past been acting conformably to that clause of the navigation law which enacts, that the crews of British ships shall be composed of three fourths native born subjects (master and mate exclusive) and that in all and every case, where this law is violated (except in such as are thereby provided for) it incurs forfeiture of vessel and cargo. We are far from disapproving of any measures tending to promote the advantage of brave tars, who, having fought our battles through a long and bloody war, are now turned adrift to work off a lee shore under bare poles; or, the contrary, we shall be happy to see them obtain bread in our service to the exclusion of foreigners; but what appears to us unjust towards the merchants and ship owners is, that the law has been precipitately acted upon, without giving timely warning of the intention of government to revive the provision of this law, that people might not be taken unawares and by surprise. We say, revive because in fact, this law in what relates to the navigation of British ships, has been for five and twenty years a dead letter, in consequence of the whole body of our men being employed on board his Majesty's ships, and our commerce, almost entirely, carried in ships manned by foreigners. Indeed it may be said, that many men now commanding British ships, have been bred at sea among foreign seamen, and may not be aware that it is now unlawful to employ them. Withal, notwithstanding the severity of the case, as a judge of a court of Vice Admiralty is bound to decide according to the letter of the law; without consulting his own feelings, we are likely to see the following vessels and cargoes, now libelled for breaches of the navigation act, condemned:

The brig Bellona, Millot, from Halifax, with fish and lumber, by the navy.

The schr. Patience from Philadelphia with lumber, by the Custom House.

Brig Recovery, from Norfolk, with flour, schr. Secses, from Barbadoes, with flour: schr, Susanna, bound to America with rum and molasses, by the Navy.

In publishing the list of seizures we have in view to disseminate the intelligence abroad, to serve as a warning to all whom it may concern and to convince them, that however at variance the inquisition of such captures may be with the sentiments of the seizing officers, still they must comply with their duty which is paramount to all other considerations.

Charleston, Nov. 20.

We received by yesterday's Southern Mail, under date Savannah Nov. 15, from the Supercargo of the late Spanish brig St. Francisco de Paula, alias Africano, Capt. Serafin Cova, the following particulars of a mutiny, &c. on board that vessel:

"The Africano, formerly the U. S. brig Fire Fly, was originally from Havana, bound to Africa, with a cargo of tobacco, rum, gunpower, iron, dry goods, &c. amounting to upwards of $300,000; touched at Amelia Island to complete her equipments: part of her crew was recruited in Charleston, and joined her at Amelia. Sailed from Amelia Island and nothing material occurred until Monday evening, 1st Oct. in lat. 16. 45. long. 25. 28. when the officers being at tea, a general mutiny took place among the crew, headed by Daniel M'Kinney, the second mate, who was sitting at the table: he sprung from his seat with a pistol; the rest of the crew being armed with boarding pikes and salamanders, cut off the retreat of the officers from the cabin and chests, and forcing them down the forecastle, placed centries over them, until they should determine their fate, at 9 A. M. ordered us into the cutter, which they had made ready for their victims, viz. the Captain, Supercargo, Chief Mate, Doctor, Purser, Boatswain, and seven men, with a bag of bread and 15 gallons bad water for our provisions, and ordered us without delay from alongside. The brig then bore away for a ship which had been in sight all that afternoon. On the 4th Oct. we fortunately landed at St. Anthony, one of the Cape de Verd Islands. The Africano was armed with 4 long 12's 2 short do and 2 9 pound carronades, with a number of small arms. The captain and purser were robbed by the mutineers of every thing but the clothes they stood in; the captain's watch was taken out of his fob by John Horn, one of the quarter masters; all the trunks were broken open, and all and every paper they could find they kept; besides the captain's clothes, they took from him 20 to 30 doubloons: the doctor's writing desk and papers were kept: the supercargo, chief mate and doctor, got one trunk each, two of which were pretty well pillaged, the boat being small and much crowded, we were obliged to throw them overboard, inclosing a few lines in two of them. The intention of these rascals is to rob every vessel they can, and then make for some port of St. Domingo, there sell out, or join the Patriots.

LIST OF THE MUTINEERS.

Daniel M'Kennen, second mate: Edward Ingraham, boatswain's mate: Peter Degrow, carpenter: John Horn & Tobias Nelson, quarter masters.

The last mentioned seven, whose names are in italic, are supposed to be innocent.

The above with three others, whose names are not recollected, composed the crew of the brig. Daniel M'Kinnen is a Scotsman, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, round built, has a scar on his left hand, from the first joint of the thumb to the palm, one of his front teeth broke or decayed; has blue eyes, light short thin hair; he is about 25 to 27 years of age; shipped in Havana, just as the brig was getting under way. Benjamin Spawhawk by his account, has been a petty officer in the U. States service, he has a mark on the back of one of his hands, forming a sun, with two letters in the circle: James Alexander, an Englishman, marked on the left cheek.

The Supercargo took passage at St. Anthony, in the Portuguese brig Maria, Conhales, for Baltimore: on sounding off the Capes, being short of provisions, spoke the ship Tiphys, of Bath, from Philadelphia, bound to Savannah, who supplied the brig with provisions, and gave the supercargo a passage to this port.

ALEXANDRIA.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28.

In pursuance of an anonemous notice in the Alexandria newspapers, inviting a meeting of all those who feel an interest in the establishment of a Branch Bank of the United States within the town, there was a numerous and respectable assembly of the citizens at Mr. M'Laughlin's tavern, on Tuesday evening last.

Amos Alexander, Esq. was appointed Chairman, and Jesse T. Ramsay, Secretary.

The meeting being organized, the Chairman enquired if any person present had any business to propose for their consideration, and if so, to bring forward the same; and no person appearing to explain the object and cause of the meeting—it was

Resolved, that a special call should be made by the Chairman, requesting those persons who were concerned in convening the meeting to state their reasons and views for so doing—and no answer being given to the call of the Chair, after waiting some time to receive the necessary explanation: It was then unanimously

Resolved, That this meeting express their disapprobation of the conduct of those who were concerned in calling the citizens together, without coming forward to explain the objects thereof.

Resolved, That these proceedings be published in the newspapers.

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting be presented to the Chairman for the faithful discharge of his duties.

Resolved, That this meeting adjourn.

AMOS ALEXANDER, Chairman.

J. T. Ramsay, Sec'y.

Feeling conscious that no degree of impropriety can be rationally ascribed to us, for the publication of the notice which occasioned the public meeting on Tuesday evening, we have as little reluctance to publish the vote of censure that has singularly been passed upon us, by that assembly, as could have been felt by the Editors of the Herald or ourselves, to give publicity to the paper which has exposed us to resentment. This meeting, we presumed, was invited with a view to consult upon the measures it might be judicious to pursue, to induce the Directors of the Bank of the United States to locate in this town the Branch which is claimed by the District and it could not be expected that, upon a subject of such general interest, we should depart from our usual course, in admitting public notices into our paper.

This notice we could not conceive to be improper, as its object seemed to be, to recommend for consideration a subject that had produced a very general sensation.

That the gentlemen, who originated this proposition to assemble those who felt an interest in the introduction of a Branch Bank, did not see it proper, afterwards, to render themselves prominent in effecting what they desired, is not a just cause for this expression of disapprobation of an act not involving very serious consequences, and with us entirely professional. We are satisfied of the respectability of the persons who were instrumental in this publication, and cannot doubt the propriety of the motives which influenced their conduct. There are some who decidedly wish the establishment of this Branch, within the town of Alexandria, & others who though of opinion that it is not important to our interests, but, believing the united efforts and zeal of the people of the district, will prevail over the better judgment of the Directors of the Bank of the United States, cordially unite in exertions to obtain its establishment, where it may be beneficial and certainly cannot be injurious.

With these views we have every reason to believe the wish was expressed for a second meeting, nor were the gentlemen unprepared for their full disclosure.

From the want, however, of union in sentiment,—from some misunderstanding among those upon whom was to devolve the task of organizing the meeting, but, particularly, we suspect, from that diversity of opinion which seemed to exist as to the expediency of a Branch Bank being introduced at all within the District, producing on the minds of those from whom some degree of activity was expected, a reluctance to be forward in promoting that which might prove to be an evil, resulted the embarrassment which was felt by the persons who were assembled—an embarrassment which we participated in, and regret as much as those, who were influenced, we think, more by an undue degree of sensibility upon the occasion, than by reflection and their deliberate judgment, to record this declaration of their disapprobation of the agency which we innocently exercised in the discharge, as we thought, of our public duties.

We now consign this matter ultimately to the candor of our friends and the public, persuaded that we have pursued the very course, which our wish to promote the public interest—the nature of our situation, and those principles which have always governed our profession, required we should pursue, and that the gentlemen who censured us without a view to our peculiar situation, would cheerfully retract their censure when irritation left room for reflection.

AGRICULTURAL, &c.

From several parts of the United States we have accounts of abundant grain crops; from others that the yield has been a fair average of the last 20 years; and from none have we learnt of any thing like a general failure. It is the opinion of intelligent agriculturalists in various parts of the Union, particularly the Northern Division, that the quantity of bread stuff harvested this year is as great as that of the last—the excess of the small grains fully equalling the deficiency of the Indian Corn. The present high price of grain must, therefore, be attributed to speculations, or unnecessary fears of scarcity, and must shortly come down, if a stop should be put to excessive exportations.

It is anticipated that the tricks of the "Harlequin" will oeas detrimental to the speculating gentry now, as the scratches of the "Bramble" were some time since.

The autumn continues remarkably mild and open. The recent rains having been abundant, the Fall Seed promises to supply a great deficiency of the hay harvest. Those who took the advice to sow turnips, &c. late, find their provident care will be rewarded.

We mention for the information of Hop Raisers, that the growth of hops in England has fallen far short of an average. Some accounts say, the duty (by which the growth usually is estimated) which was calculated to produce 60,000l will not exceed 30,000. In Middlesex, the hop growing country, we believe the growth has been large, and the quantity excellent.

A turnip has been raised in Topsfield, which measures 42 inches in circumference, and weighed 20 pounds. In Boxborough, beets have been raised, weighing without the tops, from nine pounds to nine pounds and a quarter.—N. Y. paper.

Extract of a letter from Oporto, dated in October.

"During the summer we have experienced frequent rains, which at first induced us to expect an abundant harvest of Indian Corn. We are, however, now led to believe that the continuance of wet weather may have proved very injurious to the crops; and no doubt considerable importations of grain must be made during the year. The present price of round yellow corn is 720 reas per alqr; white, flat, 650; and on these prices we do not think there will be any decline, unless the quantity imported be very great. Wheat is also in demand, but as supplies may be expected from different parts of Europe, we cannot safely quote higher prices than 800 to 850:—good rye 500 reas; flour, superfine, 8 mill reas; staves are in no demand, the stock being extremely heavy: rice continues to be prohibited."

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.

Emigration to the West.—At no period since the first settlement of the Western country has the tide of population set stronger this way than at the present.—But a few years more, and the pivot on which the union will balance, will be the Alleghany mountains, or west of them.—Already has the centre of the system receded from the Atlantic coast, where it was once supposed to be unalterably fixed, and will ere long assume a position where, heretofore has been denominated the extremity of the union. The hardy enterprize that is daily penetrating the deepest recesses of the wilds of the Missouri, the Arkansas, the Illinois, the Fox river, and the advancement of military posts by our government on the waters of our North Western lakes, will open the way for the torrent of eastern population which rolls to the west, bringing with it all the requisites for reducing a luxuriant and fertile wilderness into cultivated plains, dispensing contentment and wealth to individuals, and weight & power to the government.

Only a few days since, a party of about thirty hardy, enterprizing men, from New-England, left this place, equipped each with a rifle and two traps, on an expedition to the upper parts of the Missouri, where they expected to continue about three years, for the purpose of hunting and trapping. Before this period expires the bank of the Missouri will exhibit extensive settlements: even now the settlement at Boon's Lick, upwards of 500 miles up this river, is said to be increasing with an unusual rapidity.

Almost daily, boats are arriving at, and passing this place with families; and at Zanesville in this state, not long since, 40 family waggons crossed the ford of the river in one day, besides those which crossed on the bridges, of which there are two.

To the Printers of the Reporter.

"Balize, Oct. 14.

"I noticed in the Reporter of the 20th September, a letter from the Bay of St. Louis, which states, that the principle of retaliation is rigidly observed by the Patriots of Mexico against the Spaniards. It is in my power positively to contradict this assertion. Retaliation is not strictly observed by either the Americans or French that have taken an active part in the glorious and just cause, with the Patriots of Mexico. The Patriot Spaniards do sometimes retaliate, but not always. Mitchell who commanded the Carthagenian privateer Comet, did put to death the governor of St. Andras, and eight soldiers—he is an Englishman. Captain Northrop, late sailing master of the United States brig Boxer, now commands a Mexican privateer; he captured a Spanish letter of marque about six weeks since, the crew were landed and treated with humanity; soon afterwards Northrop boarded a Spanish brig, which was completely in his power, yet he did not molest the vessel, cargo or crew. About a month since a small Mexican Felucca, a privateer, captured a spanish brig and furnished the crew of the brig, with a boat provisions and water, and permited them to depart for a Spanish port. One of General Bolivar's colonels was a prisoner in the brig bound for Spain, there to be executed. I have this account from the colonel. The Spanish prisoners at Bouquelle, I am told by many respectable gentlemen, are well treated. Many Spanish prisoners are sent into the interior, but I do not believe for the purpose of being executed, but for the just and humane purpose of retaining them as prisoners of war, and to offer them for exchange; by these means, it possible to compel the Spanish government to desist from their cruel barbarity and come to terms of christian warefare.

"Northrop was a short time ago at the Balize with a letter of marque, now the Mexican privateer, Independence; He is gone out. A privateer belonging to the republic of Venezuela, is now at fort St. Philip, which came in a few day's since."

THE subscriber offers for sale the Estate whereon he resides in the county of Fquier, about 8 miles below the court-house, on Cedar-Run, between the roads leading to Fredericksburgh and Occoquan, 30 miles distant from either place, and 40 to Alexandria by the turnpike, from Buckland. The tract is computed at

Three thousand three hundred and seventy Acres, and is divided into three farms, with Woodland and Meadows, conveniently distributed for each. There is a Valuable Mill Seat,

with stone on the spot for building.—The stream is abundant, and waters the whole tract, presenting an extent of

Four or five hundred Acres of Low Grounds of first quality.—The high land is well divided into regular fields, some of them very productive, and is adapted to the use of Plaister. Few tracts can possess greater advantages either for extensive grazing or grain culture.

The purchaser or purchasers of the land, can be accommodated with the farming utensils, the crops of Corn and the sown Wheat—the stock of Cattle, Horses, Sheep and Hogs; and with the Negroes on the estate in families, making about 150, of a very valuable description, with some tradesmen.

The improvements are a comfortable Dwelling House, with good out Houses, Ice House, Stables, &c. The situation is healthy and the water uncommonly good. Two thirds of the whole purchase money will be required at the delivery of the property, the balance in short payments with interest and secured by a deed of trust.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store. No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to cary off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions orfoulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Teres, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during th warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number, when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout asthmatic gout, palsy, lumbagoo, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals, (the basis of other lotions) and of unparralled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent inoxication or any other destructive intemperance the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c.
